

February 19, 2003

InStep Wins U.S. Work

InStep Software LLC, the Chicago developer of engineering-based software products and customized applications for corporate and government customers, has been awarded a five-year blanket purchase agreement from the federal CADD/GIS Technology Center, which offers technical and professional services to the military branches, NASA, other government agencies and the private sector. The agreement makes available up to $15 million for projects.